

BISHOP OTIS CARSWELL'S APOSTOLIC DECREE:

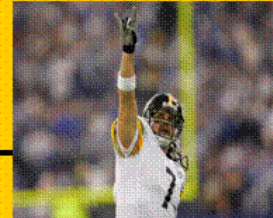

Sunday February 8, 2009 declared as: "Victory Celebration Sunday"

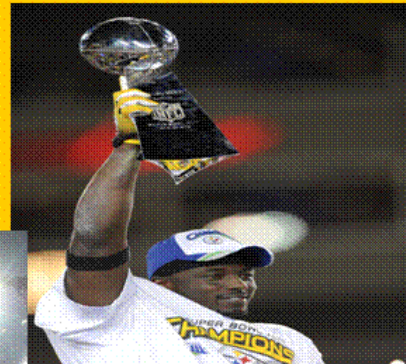

As a ministry, Potter's House you know this victory came through much prayer and believing. You also know what the Spirit declared prophetically would happen in our city when the Steelers won the "big game!" So, together as a family, the same way the team won the game, we will join our hearts and give God thanks on Sunday, February 8, 2009 at 10:30am! Please wear your black and gold (if possible)! I promise you the praise will be high, the worship sweet, and the love bountiful. I can't wait to be with you all—see you there! Bishop O

The Pittsburgh Steelers are the 43rd Super Bowl Champions of the NFL

Bring your kids, your cousins, your friends, and your praise! God is going to seal in the spirit what has happened in the natural!
